THE 2018 EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIP

(this is a 4th version announcement dated 25 October 2017)

AN INTRODUCTION

FIS Foundation in collaboration with Furen International School and UEG Hostel provides the '2018 Education Scholarship' to aid non-Chinese students in discovering Chinese Language and Culture in a setting that is predominantly Chinese in both environment and language.

The 2018 Education Scholarship is open to students who are able to pursue the International-Cambridge Examinations and Singapore-Cambridge Examinations conducted in either 2018 or 2019. These are world-renowned examination systems and instructions are conducted using the English Language.

APPLICANT REQUIREMENTS

- Display keenness and awareness of Chinese Language and Culture;
- Display belief in altruism and evidence of volunteer work;
- Pass placement tests in English and Mathematics;
- Present School Exam results on English and Mathematics;
- Attend a Chinese course held by FIS during their time of study there.

*Interested students are required to complete an online application and submit the required documents to scholarship@fisfoundation.org. Shortlisted candidates will be invited to take a test and an interview via WeChat.

ABOUT OUR MAIN PARTNER – FUREN INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

Furen International School prepares students for tertiary studies by offering preparatory courses for milestone examinations such as the Singapore-Cambridge GCE A-Level (GCE A-Level), Singapore-Cambridge GCE O-Level (GCE O-Level), Cambridge International A-Levels Examination (CIE A-Level), Cambridge International General Certificate of Secondary Education Examinations (IGCSE) and Cambridge Lower Secondary. To further enhance its courses, it also provides IELTS and ACT in order to better equip its students for tertiary studies.

Since its founding in 2000, Furen International School has grown by leaps and bounds, and to date has prepared over 3000 students for further studies. Today, it is known for providing quality education and helping its students to excel during examinations. Many of them go on to secure places in renowned universities such as Cambridge University, Oxford University, University College London, King's College, University of Toronto, The Australian National University, National University of Singapore and Nanyang Technological University.

In 2017 alone, 80% of the cohort that were accepted by universities have received offers from universities ranked in the QS Top 100 list.

Furen International School aims to become one of the most influential private schools for students seeking entry into renowned universities. Students are provided with accommodation within the school compound with a hostel operated by UEG. Not only are Furen's students taught by dedicated teachers, they also enjoy a peaceful atmosphere and a well-equipped campus that is ideal for the pursuit of academic excellence, while being in the heart of Asia's most modern and cosmopolitan city – Singapore.
